

MARKETS

The following are prices paid by J. E. Burgher, Jr. merchant, of this place.

SPROUT SPRING, KY., Jan. 25

Beans,	75 c.
Bee-wax,	25.
Country bacon,	10.
Dried apple	2.
Eggs,	8 1/2
Feathers,	20.
Ref. hides	1.
Hens,	5.
Turkeys,	5.
Dicks,	5.
Tallow,	4.
Corn,	30.

While speaking of the boys' song we must not fail to make mention of Russell Christy's song in it:

I've got no wife at present
I will have one
I've got no wife now, but
I will have soon as
I get my shakin'.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE TIMES.

Willmoth McS... we hear, has again... ed horses and that... is now on the fence and left another a hunt... ing a horse.

WE HAVE

A FULL

line of goods

CALL

and see.

J. E. BURGHER, JR.

The following is one of the popular songs of A. S. Burgher:

Come boys, let sing the old time chorus:
My old cow crossed the road cause she crossed the road ed the road sir, the reason why she cross ed the road cause she crossed the road sir.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE TIMES.

THIS SPACE

FORSALE!